Welcome to First Pres Boulder

Hey, I’m Matt, the High School Director! I am excited that you found your way here because this is an amazing place. I get the opportunity to spend time with high school friends throughout this city in hopes of pointing them towards Jesus and life to the full. Our goal is to grow in our faith together through programs and intentional relationships that meet students where they are. Thanks again for joining us this morning!

Matt McDonald
Director of High School Ministry
